2009 Louisville Outlaws Sponsorship Information

The Louisville Outlaws Baseball Club, comprised of 13-year-old boys residing in Louisville, Superior, Lafayette and Erie, is seeking sponsorship support from area businesses to help fund uniform and equipment purchases, tournament fees, and other needs associated with operating the team.

The Outlaws are members of the Louisville Youth Baseball Association (LYBA) which, in conjunction with the Jefferson County Junior Baseball League (JCJBL) and the city of Louisville, provides a quality, competitive baseball program for approximately 150 young area athletes.

Established in 1969, LYBA has produced several Colorado State Championship teams at the highest level of youth baseball, some of which have qualified and competed in national tournaments. LYBA is a non-profit 501(c)(3) baseball organization whose primary objective is to develop the skills of players in a competitive team environment, while providing a path for those who wish to compete in high school.

Two primary sponsorship levels – Gold and Silver – are available. Gold and Silver sponsors will receive a plaque with a team picture to hang in their place of business, and will be prominently highlighted on the www.louisvilleoutlaws.com website. In addition, Gold sponsors will have banners bearing their company or organization name hung at the Louisville Sports Complex and other baseball facilities throughout the season. With hundreds of parents and fans passing by every week, the banners are a great way to promote your business and show your support. Donations of less than $250 would also be gladly accepted.

If you have any questions or would like additional information, please contact Brian Holz at 303-564-9146.
